

50 Years of Wonder

CELEBRATING THE FIRST HALF-CENTURY
OF NATURAL HISTORY AT UC SANTA CRUZ
JUNE 3-5, 2022 JONES GULCH SUMMER CAMP

An inclusive gathering of the UC Santa Cruz natural history community

Fostering hope and renewal

Building and strengthening community connections

Celebrating the ongoing legacy of Ken Norris and UCSC's first field classes

FRIDAY

- 3-5pm Arrive & set up camp
- 5-6pm Community Happy Hour
- 6-7pm Dinner
- 7-8pm Opening ceremony, speakers, and icebreakers
- 8-11pm Community connections, campfire gathering, music jams, stargazing, night hikes

SATURDAY

- 6-8am Morning birding, yoga, etc.
- 8-9am Breakfast
- 9-11am Naturalist Workshops
- 11-1pm Lunch
- 1-3:30pm Naturalist Workshops
- 3:30-6pm Community connections, career networking, day hikes
- 6-7pm Dinner
- 7-8pm All Group Gathering, Celebrating 50 Years of Wonder
- 8-11pm Music & Barn Dance

SUNDAY

- 6-8am Morning birding, yoga, etc.
- 8-9am Breakfast
- 9-11am Closing Ceremony, Fostering Hope and Renewal
- 11-12pm Pack up & Depart
- 1-4pm Field Trip Tours
- 5-8pm Bring your own burrito dinner hang out at UCSC

Field Trip Options

- Swanton Pacific Ranch
- Quiroste Valley Cultural Preserve
- Pescadero marsh/beach
- Año Nuevo State Park
- Younger Lagoon Natural Reserve
- Contact us to volunteer to be a field trip leader

Workshops

- Birding by ear
- Field botany refresher
- Writing/ storytelling
- Teaching with cultural relevancy in mind
- Teaching others about climate change
- Field journaling and illustration
- Using community science tools (iNaturalist)
- Contact us to volunteer to facilitate a workshop

Community Connections

- Book swap (bring a book, take a book)
- Gear swap (bring your usable gear to donate)
- Photos/Memorabilia Display of 50 years of Natural History at UCSC (bring your photos!)
- A quiet redwood grove for grief and gratitude